

Horiso Specialty Louvres incorporate project specific components to achieve project specific outcomes.

Our highly experienced in-house team solve, design and manufacture advanced operational and installation components for our timber, glass, aluminium and composite material louvres.

This service supports our clients' project specific outcomes involving complex design integration and environmental objectives.

The results can include one or more of the following: improved system capacity, maximised solar control benefits and extended system longevity.

Contact us for further information info@horiso.com.au

horiso[®]

climate ready - horiso.com.au

AUSTRALIA NEW ZEALAND ASIA USA

Newington College, Stanmore - Sydney.

- Horiso Specialty Louvres: 600 mm vertical and horizontal aluminium louvres in a double skin facade.
- Horiso Specialty Venetian Blinds - 80 mm aluminium venetian blinds within a closed cavity facade.
- Solarai Facade Controller: automated control with integrated brightness sensor.