

Mavericks ON THE BAY Newsletter

ISSUE 5

SUMMER 2011

Welcome,

one and all to our latest newsletter. I'm sure all our regulars at Mavericks know by now that Angie Hooker is our new Manager and what a fantastic job she is doing. Her team of devoted staff will have you relaxing and in party mode in no time. As Angie makes it her personal goal to make every guest feel welcome from the moment they walk in the door.

New Years Eve

For the perfect New Years Eve celebration perched on the water's edge, why not join us for the most decadent feast in town!

The freshest seafood including lobster, king prawns, crab, oysters and fish served with table wines and champagne on arrival all this for $130 per guest. Please book early as tables are strictly limited due to demand.

It's a girl !!!!

Our dear Danny Elle Morris gave birth to a beautiful baby girl Savannah Rose on 1st October at 2.52am 6lb 10oz. Both mum and bub are doing just great.

And the Winner is..

Look who won the fantastic Jim Beam guitar, local lad Adam Farrugia.

Adam is a regular face at Mavericks and put in a solid effort to ensure he came up trumps with the winning ticket. Let's hope he knows how to strut his stuff.

Manager Specials

This month we have an excellent Managers Special wine list that should not be overlooked on your next visit to Mavericks on the Bay.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Well folks that's all from the crew at Mavs, we look forward to greeting you with a warm welcome next time you're on the marina and wish you all a very Merry Christmas & Happy New Year.
